

BIZPHYX APPROVED AS GLOBAL TRAINING PROVIDER OF TL 9000 SANCTIONED TRAINING, NEW VENTURES TO PROMOTE THE STANDARD IN ASIA

DALLAS, July 19, 2011—BIZPHYX the nation's leading quality management consultancy, specializing in the implementation of TL 9000 (the telecommunications quality standard), is pleased to announce that they have been approved as a global provider of TL 9000 sanctioned training.

For several years, BIZPHYX has been a QuEST Forum selected training provider in North and South America. As a new global training provider of TL 9000 sanctioned training, BIZPHYX will be participating in the APAC Best Practices Conference in November in Beijing, China and the APAC Best Practices Conference in April 2012 in Delhi, India. BIZPHYX is now able to facilitate international training projects and this coincides with additional ventures to help promote telecommunications quality in Asia, while advancing multi-national women owned businesses.

“We are thrilled at the opportunity to provide TL 9000 QuEST Forum sanctioned training around the globe,” said Sue Clancy, President and CEO of BIZPHYX. “Over the next several months, we will begin meeting with companies in China and India to explain the benefits of TL 9000 certification. Global quality standards are an imperative in the telecommunications industry and TL 9000 is that standard.” BIZPHYX is now designated as a global training provider on the QuEST Forum website.

BIZPHYX has the distinction of two TL 9000 Master Trainers on staff and unlike other quality consultants is also certified to both ISO 9001 and TL 9000. BIZPHYX is a member of QuEST Forum, the American Society of Quality, the Institute For Supply Management and the National Telecommunications Cooperative Association.
